Terms of use	Suitable to contain frozen, cooled and room temperature food products. Not suitable to use in traditional, gas/electric, oven and with liquids. When used to contain frozen products, it absorbs humidity at room temperature. In the case of multiple uses (e.g. freezing, use and re-freezing) the natural action of moisture causes a weakening of the cup structure. Medac guarantees the product limited to the above mentioned characteristics; Medac is not responsible for any use of the product which is different from the above mentioned ones. Medac is not responsible for any kind of damage deriving from a non-conventional use of the product. Medac reserves the right to improve upon the product without any warning. For different uses, please check the samples provided by Medac.
